

the truth as one would ransom a captive. True learning is able to redeem prisoners from their erroneous way.

True learning from the true root is the discovery of the truth, and by discovering the truth we redeem the truth from captivity, so that it will illuminate and heal the world. This is the hope of Torah Ohr, to illuminate from the light of truth, and heal.

And know! Just as Am Israel are now in the exile of Edom, Hashem and the Moshiach are as well, in the same way promised to Yaakov: "I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also surely bring you up [again], (in Hebrew God states: and I also will come up with you)" [Gen 46:4].

In times of old, the LORD and His Moshiach descended into exile together with the House of Yaakov, and they also rose up out of exile together—and so they will rise again in the future, soon in our days, Amen. In the same way light was distinguished from darkness and chaos at the beginning of Creation, the Moshiach will be revealed, and (likewise the light of) the People of Israel will also be revealed - to the world as well to the People of Israel themselves. The coming revelation of Israel's light is an exalted, great and wondrous secret to the nations at large and to Israel specifically.

Just as Am Israel is currently in exile, the Moshiach is as well. Like Yosef in Egypt, Moshiach is in Edom. Edom is the spirit of Amalek, which is an opposing enemy to the spirit of Israel and their Torah. The Bible reveal that the Moshiach is as a captive in Edom. He appears "Edomite" - and from Edom he will rise, come, and be revealed in judgement of the nations. It's apt to know that the Moshiach will take vengeance of those who filthied his apparel - his identity. In Isaiah 63 it is written that from all the nations, there is no man for him. Not one of them... This should concern all gentiles desirous of life.

In this exile, Moshiach's "apparel" is foreign. In today's world, his apparel - which is his identity - is a false identity. An important rule to note: a person cannot truly distort the Moshiach's identity; except for those to claim to be his followers - those who teach or speak supposedly in his name, and allegedly act in his name, but have no trace of who or what he truly is, and what his true root and true path are. The truth, as man's knowledge, is captive to this bitter exile.

Know and internalize in your heart that God did not forsake His people, not for a moment or in any circumstance. Even if: "...the LORD shall scatter you (Am Israel) among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the
