

did and will continue to give this nation - and just to this nation - the interpretations and instructions for the fulfillment of the Torah - eternally.

And Moses said: "And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that you might do them in the land that you go over to possess" [Deu 4:14]. Moshe's guidance on how to fulfill the Torah is not found in the written Torah. The Torah is the Word of God; there are no interpretations or guidance on how to carry it out... But Moshe revealed to his people the secrets of the Torah, the interpretations, the manner of observing the commandments and the laws of his people Israel as he received from the Giver of the Torah; and in this manner the entirety of these treasures are passed down from generation to generation in Israel by the righteous of every generation.

Stand firm and candid in light of the following words, and understand: God gave His People Israel the Torah, and because of this, He counselled His People Israel - how to fulfill the commandments of the Torah, as it is stated: "He (God) has revealed His words to Jacob, His statutes and His judgments (which they are the mitzvot of the Torah) to Israel. He has not dealt thus with any nation; And [as for His] judgments, they have not known them. Praise the LORD!" [Psa 147:19-20]. Why did God guide His people Israel only in how to fulfill the commandments of the Torah? Because the reason for the existence of the People of Israel, of an Am Segula (which is medicine for the nations) - is to serve as a light to the nations. This is the Jews' duty toward the nations.

We are all aware of the Christian concept of replacement theology. Though, praise God, there are signs that the situation is improving and many are removing this terrible theology from their daily routine, but the basic principle of this theology is still the main way of most believers. That is, not the replacement of Israel and their firstborn status, but rather by replacing the pure original springs of living water - with foreign and futile sources.

This is your hour! Let's walk together to the springs of living water. Come to the wells of the forefathers of the nation of Israel, to the springs of living water of the true tzaddikim of Am Israel – who will illuminate for us the true light of the Melech Ha'Mashiach, may he come quickly and in our days, Amen.
